

INVI's Guy Perry at a recent charity gala at the Novotel Hotel, Warsaw, where PLN88,000 was raised for Against the Odds, a charity set up by renowned Polish actress Anna Dymna to help people with learning disabilities.

"As in the past, the main attraction of the event was an auction. Funds raised were PLN88,000 and this will be used to build a therapy centre in Radwanowice, near Krakow. This beat last year's record which was PLN60,000," said Anna Mirska-Perry, the event's creator and organizer.

A number of real estate companies supported the event including Ghelamco, and GTC as well as INVI. Guy Perry bought two paintings including one by Philip Knauf, who attended the event. He was joined by Maciej Krenek from RE project development who bought a number of pieces, as well as Mariusz Kozlowski from GTC, who chose a painting by Andrzej Roszczak.
